MEETING OF UFRRBU – MORE INTENSIFIED AGITATION TO CLINCH OUR ISSUES

United Forum of RRB Unions (UFRRBU) held its Meeting in New Delhi on 6th June, 2016 to discuss and decide future course of action.

On behalf of AIRRBOF three Senior Office Bearers, viz. Com. R.G. Makhija, President, Com. Srijan Pal, Vice President and Com. S.K. Bhattacharjee, General Secretary attended the Meeting. It was pointed out by AIRRBOF representatives that for success of future agitation programme ground level unity at RRB Level is absolutely essential. It was pointed out that the UFRRBU should function democratically and then only it can continue to deliver justice to officers & employees of RRBs.

In accordance with the decision of the 61st Central Committee Meeting it was pointed out focus of further agitation should be on the issue of Pension. After detailed discussion it was decided that further agitation shall be on the following issues:

DEMANDING:

i) Parity in Pension and PF payment.

ii) Parity in Service condition between officers and employees of RRBs and PSBs

OPPOSING:

Move to privatise RRBs by different means.

AIRRBOF made it clear that UFRRBU cannot in any way be involved in the ensuing protest programme of Pensioners and can only extend moral support.

After discussion consensus was reached that :

i) Three days strike shall be observed from 27th to 29th July, 2016 on the aforesaid issues.

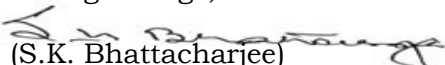

ii) Campaign Programme in New Delhi shall be observed from 20th to 22nd July, 2016.

iii) Efforts should be made to hold Seminar on the issues in New Delhi on 21st July, 2016.

Support of all Central Trade Unions and Bank Level Associations should be ensured to make our programme successful. All our affiliates/members should not spare any efforts to make the programme successful.

Strike Notice is enclosed. No affiliate should give any separate Notice to Management and only copy of our Strike Notice should be handed over to Management under acknowledgement.

With greetings,

(S.K. Bhattacharjee)

Sir,

NOTICE OF STRIKE

In accordance with the decision of United Forum of RRB Unions (UFRRB) all the affiliates of AIRRBOF shall observe three days strike from 27th July to 29th July, 2016 to the following issues:

DEMANDING:

- i) Parity in Pension and PF payment.
- ii) Parity in Service condition between officers and employees of RRBs and PSBs.

OPPOSING:

Move to privatise RRBs by different means.

You shall appreciate that issues are pending for a long time and we had to resort could strike & other agitation programme in the past also. However, you did not take any initiative to resolve the issues. Hence, the three days strike.

Please consider our letter as a Notice of Strike under relevant provisions of Industrial Disputes Act.

With regards,
Yours faithfully,

(S.K. Bhattacharjee)
