NEWS ROUND UP

The constituents of JFGBU met in Mumbai in the sidelines of JCC Meeting at NABARD, HO on 27th April, 2015. AIGBWO and AIGBOO who stayed away from JFGBU also attended the Meeting. It was decided that JFGBU shall be christened as United Forum of RRB Unions (UFRRBU). In order to broad base our agitation programme and the in the light of positive note displayed during JCC and Pension Committee Meeting it was decided to postpone the strike slated for 28th April, 2015. UFRRBU shall decide future course of action in the next Meeting.

2. RRB Act amendment Bill which was already passed in the Lok Sabha in the month of December, 2014 was introduced in Rajya Sabha on 28th April, 2015. The Bill was vociferously objected to by MP (RS) of Samajwadi Party, Bahujan Samaj Party & left while Congress and TMC kept their silence. After heated discussion the Bill was passed by Voice Vote. The day should be reckoned as Black Day for people living in Rural areas and those who are underprivileged. Even though the Bill was passed we have to carry on our fight by different means.

3. Our General Secretary during his visit to NABARD, HO on 28th April, 2015 held extensive Meeting with Shri H.R. Dave, Dy. Managing Director, NABARD and Shri N.P. Mahopatra, General Manager on the contentious issue of Pension. He could take them along on certain areas of calculation of Pension corpus and how to meet the same.

4. Our General Secretary shall be visiting Krishnanagar (West Bengal) on 9th & 10th May, 2015 to attend the General Body Meeting of Bangia Gramin Bank Officers' Association.

5. The 59th Central Committee Meeting of AIRRBOF shall be held at the Queen of Hills, Darjeeling on 24th May, 2015. All CC Members/invitees are requested to attend to make it a grand success.

With greetings,

(S.K. Bhattacharjee)
GENERAL SECRETARY
